

Max Planck Institute
LUXEMBOURG
for Procedural Law

GIOVANNI CHIAPPONI

giovanni.chiapponi@mpi.lu

Tel.: +352 26 94 88 263

Professional Experience

10/2018 – present

Research Fellow, Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for Procedural Law, Department of European and Comparative Procedural Law directed by Professor Burkhard Hess.

Education

- PhD student DTU Rems program on the thesis “Time limits in EU procedural law: need for harmonization?” under the joint supervision of Professor Burkhard Hess, University of Luxembourg and Professor Paolo Biavati, University of Bologna. (10/2018...).
- Second level University Master’s Degree in European Private Law, La Sapienza University of Rome (March 2019).
- Second level Master’s Degree in French Law-Foreign Law (Italian law), University of Paris Nanterre (December 2017).
- Law Degree (five years degree type Bologna), University of Bologna (November 2017),
- Law Bachelor Degree, University of Paris Nanterre (May 2015).

Publications

Journal Articles

- “Medici e remunerazione: il miracolo della prescrizione”, in Judicium Il Processo Civile in Italia e in Europa, Pacini Giuridica, 19 July 2019, available at <http://www.judicium.it/medici-remunerazione-miracolo-della-prescrizione/>.
- “Can harmonized time limits in European civil procedure enhance the effectiveness of the enforcement of EU law?”, in Cuadernos de Derecho Transnacional, Vol. 12 n.1 2020, p. 543-549, available at <https://e-revistas.uc3m.es/index.php/CDT/article/view/5202>.
- “Judicial cooperation and coronavirus: the law must go on” in Judicium Il Processo Civile in Italia e in Europa, Pacini Giuridica, 23 May 2020, available at <http://www.judicium.it/judicial-cooperation-and-coronavirus-the-law-must-go/>.
- “Riforme e legalita: aspetti della crisi della legge” in Libro Aperto, N.101 April/June 2020, p. 101-106.
- “Time limits and default judgments in European cross-border civil litigation: minimum standards?”, in Cuadernos de Derecho Transnacional. Vol. 12 n.2 2020, p. 971-978, available at <https://e-revistas.uc3m.es/index.php/CDT/article/view/5744>.

Blogposts

- “The Impact of Corona Virus on the Management of Judicial Proceedings in Italy”, 13 March 2020, available at <https://eapil.org/2020/03/13/the-impact-of-corona-virus-on-the-management-of-judicial-proceedings-in-italy/>.

Conference Presentations

- "Can harmonized time limits in European civil procedure enhance the effectiveness of the enforcement of EU law?", presented at the University of Luxembourg ("Enforcement Challenges in Multi-Level Regulatory Systems: Mapping the Landscapes"), 21 May 2019.
- "Oral arguments and fair trial before the Italian supreme Court", Seminar hosted at the Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for Procedural Law on the occasion of the visit of three judges from the Supreme Court of Japan, 4 December 2019.
- "Time limits and default judgments in European cross-border civil litigation: minimum standards?", presented at the University of Vilnius ("The future decade of EU law"), 9 May 2020.
- "Europeanization of time limits in civil proceedings: which legal basis?", presented at the University of Ljubiana (International Doctoral Seminar in Law 2020), 10 September 2020.

Teaching Activities

- The Succession Regulation taught at the University of Luxembourg, MPILU-UNILU Master Program Seminar on "Fundamental Developments in European Procedural Law" (May 2019).
- The Succession Regulation taught at the University of Luxembourg, MPILU-UNILU Master Program Seminar on "Fundamental Developments in European Procedural Law" (May 2020).
- The 'second generation' of EU Regulations on procedural law for cross-border cases: The European Order for Payment and the Account Preservation Order" taught at the University of Luxembourg, MPILU-UNILU Master Program Seminar on "Fundamental Developments in European Procedural Law" (May 2020)..
- The 'second generation' of EU Regulations on procedural law for cross-border cases: The European Order for Payment and the Account Preservation Order" taught at the University of Luxembourg, MPILU-UNILU Master Program Seminar on "Fundamental Developments in European Procedural Law" (May 2021)..
- "Time limits in EU cross-border civil litigation: free circulation of judgments and right to a fair trial" taught at the university of Bologna summer school on "Transnational litigation: current issues in civil and commercial matters" (July 2021).