The Lecture Series seeks to stimulate discussion and debate on the multifaceted legal and procedural issues concerning sovereign debt restructuring. It will consist of six public lectures tied to a trilogy of themes: the sovereign debt problem, recent sovereign debt litigation, and reform proposals. For more information, please visit our website: www.mpi.lu

Wednesday, 5 October 2016 | 16:00
“The Law and Economics of Sovereign Debt and Default”
Lecturer: Prof. Ugo Panizza (Graduate Institute Geneva)
Discussant: Prof. Pierre-Henri Conac (University of Luxembourg)

Wednesday, 26 October 2016 | 16:00
“Sovereign Debt Restructuring and International Law”
Lecturer: Prof. Robert Howse (New York University)
Discussant: Dr. Matthias Goldmann (Goethe University Frankfurt)

Thursday, 3 November 2016 | 16:00
“Implications of Recent Sovereign Debt Litigation: Lessons from Argentina and Greece”
Lecturer: Prof. Mathias Audit (University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)
Discussant: Prof. Régis Bismuth (Sciences Po Paris)

Wednesday, 9 November 2016 | 16:00
“Investment Arbitration as a Means of Resolving Sovereign Debt Dispute”
Lecturer: Dr. Michael Waibel (University of Cambridge)
Discussant: Prof. Rodrigo Olivares-Caminal (Queen Mary University of London)

Wednesday, 30 November 2016 | 16:00
“Proposals for Reform of Sovereign Debt Restructuring: The Contractual Approach”
Lecturer: Mr. Philip R. Wood CBE (Allen & Overy)
Discussant: Prof. Christoph G. Paulus (Humboldt University of Berlin)

Wednesday, 14 December 2016 | 16:00
“Proposals for Reform of Sovereign Debt Restructuring: The Statutory Approach”
Lecturer: Mr. Lee C. Buchheit (Cleary Gottlieb)
Discussant: Prof. Luis M. Hinojosa-Martínez (University of Granada)