

Research seminar

Enforcement Challenges in Multi-Level Regulatory Systems: Mapping the Landscapes

21 and 22 May 2019

Faculty of Law, Economics and Finance

Conference rooms B001 & C013, ground floor - 21 May

Max Planck Institute Luxembourg

Conference room, 4th floor - 22 May

Weicker Building

4, rue Alphonse Weicker

L-2721 Luxembourg

KEYNOTE SPEECH

22 May (9:15 - 10:15)

Professor Allan Rosas

Judge at the Court of Justice of the European Union

The two-day event aims to delve into the diverse nature of enforcement challenges in multi-level regulatory systems. By bringing together early career and established scholars, the event will explore the contested understandings of enforcement in multi-level legal frameworks and the challenges connected with a proliferation of actors in composite political constructs.

SPEAKERS

Mads Andenas

Professor of Law,
University of Oslo

Paul Craig

Professor of English Law,
University of Oxford

Matteo Gargantini

Assistant Professor of European Economic Law,
Utrecht University

Arjen W.H. Meij

Honorary Professor of European Law,
University of Luxembourg,
former Judge at the General Court of the European Union

Stanislaw Tosza

Assistant Professor in Criminal Law,
Utrecht University

Tobias Tröger

Professor of Private Law Trade and Business Law,
Goethe University Frankfurt and Research
Center Sustainable Architecture for Finance in Europe (SAFE)

Lorna Woods

Professor of Internet Law,
University of Essex

REGISTRATION

Free Seminar

Registration: anna.christen@uni.lu

For further information: Multilevel.Enforcement.2019@uni.lu

