

Max Planck Institute
LUXEMBOURG
for Procedural Law

The New Litigation Landscape: International Commercial Courts and the Coordination of Cross-Border Proceedings

Monday, 14 October 2019

Programme

09:30 I. Introduction

Speaker: Marta Requejo Isidro (Luxembourg)

10:00 II. International Commercial Courts and Procedural Innovations

- A common law phenomenon?
- E-Justice in the commercial courts

Speaker: Sir William Blair QC (London)

Respondent: Dory Reiling (The Hague)

11:30 III. International Commercial Courts and Party Autonomy

- Copying arbitration to court proceedings: How far can we go?
- Party autonomy and residual features of court proceedings
- International Commercial Courts: New actors for "lex mercatoria"

Speaker: Maxi Scherer (London)

12:00 IV. International Commercial Courts and Global Judicial Cooperation

- The 2005 Hague Choice of Court Convention
- The 2019 Hague Judgments Convention
- Informal co-operation between commercial courts

Speaker: Gilles Cuniberti (Luxembourg)

Respondent: Cristina M. Mariottini (Luxembourg)

13:45 V. A Historical Precursor? The Mixed Courts of Egypt, 1875-1949

Speaker: Michel Erpelding (Luxembourg)

14:15 VI. Brexit, Commercial Courts and the Brussels System

- Regulatory competition within the Brussels Ibis regime
- Expedited proceedings for commercial actors?
- The outgoing perspective: The United Kingdom as a Third State

Speaker: Burkhard Hess (Luxembourg)

Respondent: Kieran Bradley (Luxembourg)

15:30 VII. Roundtable / Open Discussion

International Commercial Courts: An option for Luxembourg and other EU Member States?

Chair: Sir William Blair (London)

Speakers: Peter Werner (London)

Thierry Hoscheit (Luxembourg)

Veronique Hoffeld (Luxembourg)

17:00 End of conference