

Max Planck Institute
LUXEMBOURG
for Procedural Law

BLOCKCHAIN AND PROCEDURAL LAW

Blockchain Technologies at the Domestic and the International Levels

Friday, 17 January 2020

3rd Seminar: Blockchain Technologies at the Domestic and the International Levels

10:00 Opening Presentation

Dr Lily Martinet, Dr Edouard Fromageau (MPI Luxembourg for Procedural Law)

10:10 States Harnessing the Potential of Blockchain Technologies

Dr Lily Martinet (MPI Luxembourg for Procedural Law)

Exercising Digital Sovereignty over the Blockchain

Dr Helen Eenmaa-Dimitrieva (University of Tartu)

Sovereignty and Autonomy via Mathematics

Ms Tian Lu (Maastricht University)

The Implementation of Blockchain Technologies in Chinese Courts

Prof. Christian Iaione (Luiss Guido Carli University, LabGov.City), Prof. Sofia Ranchordas (University of Groningen)

Smart Public Contracts: Home for Future-Proofing Law?

14:00 International Organisations Embracing the Blockchain

Ms Emmanuelle Ganne (World Trade Organization)

Blockchain and International Trade: From Tech to Regulation – The Need for an International Approach

Dr Edouard Fromageau (MPI Luxembourg for Procedural Law)

Uses of Blockchain by International Financial Institutions and their Legal Implications

Dr André Nunes Chaib (Maastricht University)

What Role for the IMF in Regulating Virtual Currencies?

Prof. Nathalie Janson (NEOMA Business School and Sciences Po)

Private Cryptocurrencies versus Central Bank Digital currencies: The War of Titans?

16:30 Concluding Remarks

Prof. Antoine Garapon (Institut des Hautes Etudes sur la Justice), Dr Jean Lassègue (CNRS)