

Max Planck Institute
LUXEMBOURG
for Procedural Law

© Quentin Bertoux / VU'

REPRESENTING THE ABSENT WEBINAR

Luxembourg, 2 December 2020

14:00 Brief Introduction of the Speakers

14:05 Introduction
Hélène Ruiz Fabri

1^{er} Round table: The representation of past generations

14:15-14:45 - 1st Panel - Chair: Alessandra Donati

- Valérie Rosoux (FNRS - UCLouvain): "Intergenerational justice in post-conflict settings"
- Sandra Rios (FNRS - UCLouvain): "The Disappeared and the Refugee: Forced Absence and Forced Appearance"
- Lily Martinet (MPI Luxembourg): "Longing, belonging and owning: how to untangle competing rights over colonial cultural objects?"
- Stipe Odak (UCLouvain): "Representing the Genocide Victims: Intersections of Political, Social, and Cultural Procedures"
- I. William Zartmann (John Hopkins University): "Negotiating the Past: Correcting or Resurrecting?"

14:45-15:00 - Discussion 1st Panel

15:00-15:10 Break

15:10-15:45 - 2nd Panel

- Fé de Jonge (SOAS University of London): "Inscribing the Absent: The Transformative Potential of the Silenced Victim"
- Kritika Sharma (MPI Luxembourg): "Representing victims or indirect victims? An analysis of the rights of deceased victims and their successors with a focus on different categories of victims and different categories of crimes"
- Carlos Bichet Nicoletti (MPI Luxembourg): "Exploring the past and future dimensions of the absent victim in international human rights adjudication"
- Carol Gluck (Columbia University): "Transgenerational perspectives in the memory of WWII in East Asia"

15:45-16:00 - Discussion 2nd Panel

16:00-16:15 Break

2nd Round table: The representation of future generations

16:15-17:00 - 1st Panel - Chair: Valérie Rosoux

- Alessandra Donati (MPI Luxembourg): "The representation of future generations under EU law"
- Yumiko Nakanishi (Hitotsubashi University): "Transfer of Competence by Future Generations to the Present Generation: Necessity and Methods"
- Rudolf Schussler (University of Bayreuth) and Fritz Gillerke (University of Bayreuth): "Spheres of Justice for Imagined Descendants"
- Ludvig Beckman (University of Stockholm): "Democratic legitimacy and institutions for future generations"
- Michele Carducci (University of Salento) and Silvia Bagni (University of Bologna): "How to see the invisible? The 'methods' of the rights of nature to represent future generations"
- Elena Ivanova (MPI Luxembourg): "Mechanisms available under the law of the sea to speak on behalf of future generations"

17:00-17:10 Break

17:10-17:25 - Discussion 1st Panel

17:25-18:00 - 2nd Panel

- Marcel Szabo (Pázmány Péter Catholic University of Budapest): "Representing the interests of present and future generations in the same time - through the example of the Hungarian Ombudsman for future generations"
- Alexandra Harrington (University of Albany): "Peace for the Future: The Incorporation of Future Generations in Peace Treaties and Reconciliation Institutions"
- Luis Angel López Zamora (MPI Luxembourg): "The Rights of Nature in Latin America"
- Luisa Cortat Simonetti (Academy for European Law ERA): "The greening of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights: environmental protection possibilities for future generations"
- Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger (University of Waterloo): "Advancing Law and Governance Innovations for Intergenerational Justice"

18:00-18:15 - Discussion 2nd Panel

18:15-18:30 - Conclusions Hélène Ruiz Fabri

Contact person: Sabrina Logrillo • Phone: (+352) 26 94 88 - 926 • events@mpi.lu

Online: Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for Procedural Law • 4, rue Alphonse Weicker • L-2721 Luxembourg